Sailing classes include classroom time, which is time not spent on the water sailing. Classroom time can vary from class to class for various reasons.

Students choosing to live aboard during their sailing class do so by their own choice at no additional charge. Students choosing not to live aboard during sailing class for any reason, i.e. weather, noise, condition of the boats, comfort aboard etc., has no bearing on the cost of the sailing class. No tuition refunds will be given and students are responsible for securing lodging elsewhere at their cost.

Sailing classes do not include food and beverages. Our billing for sailing instruction is from 9:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Florida Keys Sailing has the sole option of assigning boats for use in any sailing class. Class sizes could vary based on availability of boats and instructors or weather conditions. Any changes do not warrant any refunds or rain checks.
